

Ancient Egyptian Social Pyramid

Now that you have you read about the ancient Egyptian social pyramid, you and two other students will create a comic strip that accurately depicts what daily life was like in ancient Egypt. Your group will be responsible for each level in the social pyramid: pharaoh, government officials, priests, scribes, artisans, and peasants.

Each person in the group must complete two of the boxes in the comic strip (this way you will have six boxes total in your comic strip). Use the comic strip template provided by your teacher

Each box must:

- describe one of the levels of the social pyramid and include 2 facts
- Include pictures and dialogue
- Be neat and colorful

This assignment is worth 30 points and is due on Wednesday November 4th.

Name(s):

Date:

Daily Life in Ancient Egypt Comic Strip Rubric

	6	4	2	Score
Describe 6 levels	All 6 levels of the social structure are included	Most of the 6 levels of the social structure are included	Few of the 6 levels of the social structure are included
2 Facts	2 facts are included about all 6 social levels	2 facts are included about most social levels	2 facts are included about some social levels
Pictures	A picture is included in all of the boxes	A picture is included in most of the boxes	A picture is included in some of the boxes
Dialogue	Dialogue is included in all of the boxes	Dialogue is included in most of the boxes	Dialogue is included in some of the boxes
Presentation	Comic book is complete, neat and colorful	Comic book is mostly complete, neat and colorful	Comic book is somewhat complete, neat and colorful

Total Score _____